The Red Wolfs Prize Regan Walker
Regan Walker's The Red Wolf's Prize (Medieval Warriors #1) is a good change for me. The book concentrated on William The Conqueror's 1066 Invasion & eventual takeover of Saxon England, but that is the background of this novel. The main story concerns one of William's favorite knights who has fought with him for quite awhile, the Red Wolf.

Throughout Red Wolf's Prize, she battles the Norman knight who has been awarded her lands and her hand in marriage. The conflict over her concerns for the welfare of her people, her grudging admiration for her new husband and her distraught nature over the fate of her brother brings together a story very likely to have happened in the medieval world of 11th century England.
